3. Report from Millstreet

There was no presentation from Millstreet 2006 since no one was present who could give the presentation.

4. Presentation from EJC 2008

Philip, Tobias and Tassilo presented information about next year's EJC which will be in Karlsruhe. The dates are 2008-08-02 to 2008-08-10.

Overall the planning is looking good. The website is up and running at www.ejc2008.de and in September 2007 it will be possible for artists to submit their info for performing.

5. Voting on where to go for EJC2009

Alex and his team presented the candidacy for organizing EJC2009 in the basque country in northern Spain. They handed out flyers and informed the jugglers about the site.

Since there were no other groups presenting a candidacy for organizing EJC2009, the decision was to appoint the Basque team to organize EJC2009.

6. Voting on where to go for EJC2010

Samuli presented the candidacy for organizing EJC2010 in Finland. There were no other candidates for organizing EJC2010.

The meeting approved the Finnish candidacy and EJC2010 will be in Finland.

7. Presentation for EJC2011

The Munich team presented their ideas and work around going to Munich for EJC2011. The idea is to use the Olympic center from the 1972 Olympic Games.
